

Pseudoscorpion

Pseudoscorpions have pinchers like a scorpion but do not have any way to sting you. They produce silk to make a nest. Their primary food sources are springtails and mites. Their primary form of moving around is called phoresia and means hitch hiking on the legs of a harvestman.

Oregon Caves National Monument